Our love story...

Originally conceived as a private home, the 8,500-square foot Villa now serves as an extension of the Sunstone Winery lifestyle.

Built with authentic reclaimed materials from various buildings in the regions of Marseille and Provence, France, the entire structure is constructed with French limestone. The wood beams and antique pieces were reclaimed from a 19th century lavender factory, once owned by Queen Victoria.

Stepping into Sunstone one feels as though they are transported to France. Hear the crunch of gravel underfoot as you meander through the grounds tastefully planted with olive trees, rosemary and lavender.

It's a property that once experienced, will remain in your memory forever.

The image shows a rustic interior with stone walls. A wooden door with a glass insert is open, revealing a staircase with warm lighting. In the foreground, there are several lit candles in glass holders on a stone surface.

The Villa has 5 luxurious master suites, each with their own private baths.

Each suite is appointed with genuine European antiques, fine Italian Gentiili linens, L'Occitane bathroom essentials, and delicious Sunstone Wines.

Throughout the stunning Provençal structure, are real wood-burning fireplaces, a billiards room, an authentic farm kitchen, and gorgeous 360 degree views of the Santa Ynez Valley.
